Native American Substance Abuse Prevention Skills Training

DESCRIPTION:

The goal is to train Native American and Alaska Native substance abuse prevention practitioners and those working in Native American and Alaska Native communities in related disciplines to develop the knowledge and skills needed address substance use prevention and provide effective prevention services to their communities using the strategic prevention framework. This training requires completion of an online portion (5 hours) prior to attending the four-day face-to-face training.

PARTICIPANT INFORMATION:

- This training is free to tribal members
- Participants are responsible for their own travel, accommodation and food
- Participants will receive a certificate representing the total number of attended training hours. These can be submitted to participants' local credentialing authority toward prevention certification or re-certification. We are a NAADAC certified educational provider.
