Course Description

Recovery Month seeks to promote and support innovative treatments and practices while celebrating individuals in recovery and the dedication of service providers and community members across the country who make recovery obtainable for all who need it the most. This webinar will examine the scope of peers' roles and how they execute a holistic approach within their communities. We will unpack the barriers peers have while working with marginalized and vulnerable communities and the actions taken to ensure equitable treatment to the clients they serve. This webinar will also explore the techniques used by peers to address the ever evolving needs of communities.

Learning Objectives

- 1.Explain 2-3 SAMSHA's guiding principles of recovery and their connection to individuals, families and communities
- 2. Define the roles of peers and examine their contribution to holistic approach to recovery
- 3. Explore the barriers of social determinants of health and challenges clients face seeking recovery
- 4. Give example of how partnership are formulated to ensure healthier individuals and communities.
