

Enhanced Prevention Learning Series (EPLS): Prevention Ethics

PREVENTION ETHICS

This 3-week series offers a unique interactive experience that provides participants an opportunity to explore the six principles of the Prevention Code of Ethics using realistic examples designed to strengthen participants' abilities to manage challenging situations in their work. The learning series is structured to also provide online consultation, skill-based learning and practice, group and individual activities, reading assignments, and discussion on topics essential to application of an ethical decision-making process.

AUDIENCE

Community-level prevention practitioners and allied partners working to prevent substance misuse in the Northwest Prevention Technology Transfer Center HHS Region 10: Alaska, Idaho, Oregon and Washington. Prevention professionals interested in this course but who work outside of Region 10 are encouraged to contact their region's PTTC to learn what opportunities for similar courses are available to them.

TRAINER

Jill Parker has been working in the field of public health for over twenty years. She is currently the Executive Director of the Utah Association of Local Health Departments and Utah Association of Local Boards of Health. In this role, she coordinates with and supports the 13 local health departments across the state, serves as a legislative liaison, and works to spread the message on the essential role of public health in communities. She also serves on the Executive Board of the Utah Coalition for Opioid Overdose Prevention and the Utah Poison Control Center Advisory Board.

PARTICIPANT COMMITMENTS and EXPECTATIONS

- View a 20-minute video tutorial prior to the first session on Monday, November 4th on how to use and maximize the videoconferencing platform
- Attend a live one-hour Orientation to Technology Session on Monday, November 4th, to demonstrate mastery of the basic technology skills required to participate
- Commit to attending 4 sessions of training, for 1.5 hours on scheduled series days/times and complete ONE hour of weekly learning activities.
- Complete up to an hour of independent learning activities between each session.
- Use a web-camera and have appropriate technology to join the online videoconferencing platform (i.e., internet connection, built-in or USB webcam, laptop/tablet, built-in/USB/Bluetooth speakers & microphone)
