The Mountain Plains Addiction Technology Transfer Center (MP-ATTC)

provides regional activities focused on preparing practitioners through innovative and accessible learning opportunities on research-based practices to improve the quality of service delivery and provide intensive technical assistance to provider organizations to improve their processes and practices in the delivery of effective substance use disorder (SUD) treatment and recovery services. Enhancing SUD treatment and recovery services for individuals and family members, especially those residing in rural and remote areas, is the foundation of the MP-ATTC's work. Mountain Plains (HHS Region 8)

Prevention Technology Transfer Center Network
Funded by Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration

The Mountain Plains Prevention Technology Transfer Center (MP-PTTC)

provides training and technical assistance through the technology transfer model to disseminate tools and strategies needed to improve the quality of substance use prevention. The MP-PTTC leverages expertise and resources to engage the next generation of prevention professionals. Attention is given to strengthen the workforce pipeline for pre-professionals and professionals in the substance use prevention and health care fields.
