

Prevention Ethics

Enhanced Prevention Learning Series

Series Description

This 2-week distance learning series offers a unique interactive experience that provides participants an opportunity to explore the six principles of the Prevention Code of Ethics using realistic examples designed to strengthen participants' abilities to manage challenging situations in their work. The learning series is structured to also provide online consultation, skill-based learning and practice, group and individual activities, reading assignments, and discussion on topics essential to application of an ethical decision-making process. During this EPLS participants will: 1) Define Ethics and related terms, 2) Describe the six principles in the Prevention Code of Ethics. 3) Use an ethical decision-making process to apply the Prevention Code of Ethics

Trainer

Christina Lopez-Gutierrez has extensive experience in evidence-based substance misuse prevention practices at the local, state, and bi-national levels. Her career began in the late 1990s, implementing “model” curricula in communities and evolved to providing Training/Technical Assistance to community-based coalitions, single state agencies, Promotores and Community Health Workers. Ms. Gutierrez has been part of various training teams to include the U.S.-Mexico Border states and sister cities in Mexico with the delivery of the Strategic Prevention Framework in Spanish. More recently, Ms. Gutierrez has participated in a state-wide evaluation team to support grantees aiming to decrease Prescription Misuse and Underage drinking.

Participant Commitments and Expectations

- Prior to Session 1 on March 23, complete the Session 1 reading assignment and view a 20-minute zoom video tutorial located on the learning portal.
- Commit to attending 4 sessions of training, for 1.5 hours on scheduled series days/times.
- Complete up to an hour of independent learning activities prior to each session.
- Use a web-camera and have appropriate technology to join the online videoconferencing platform (i.e., internet connection, built-in or USB webcam, laptop/tablet, built-in/USB/Bluetooth speakers & microphone)

Continuing Education

In order to receive a certificate of attendance for 9 contact hours, participants are expected to view the 20-minute video tutorial; be prepared for and join each session; and actively engage in discussions. Participants will need to confirm with their certification board to determine if these certification hours are accepted towards their specific certification requirements.
