

What LGBTQIA2S+ BIPOC want Prevention Professionals to Know?

LGBTQIA2S+ Two-Spirit resources

April, 2022.

Inclusivity Statement: the National Hispanic and Latino PTTC understands that there is a lot of important discussion focusing on the terminology individuals choose to use for racial, ethnic, heritage, and cultural identification. There are different terms such as Latinos, Latinas, Hispanics, Latinx, Latine, Chicano, and others, all equally valuable. We advocate for self-identification for every person. For purposes of this resource and additional materials, our Center will be using the term Latina and Hispanic.

What LGBTQIA2S+ BIPOC want Prevention Professionals to Know? Directory of resources

The Central East PTTC, Central East ATTC, National American Indian & Alaska Natives PTTC, and the National Hispanic and Latino PTTC joined efforts to proudly present a 4-part virtual learning series titled 'What LGBTQIA2S+ BIPOC want Prevention Professionals to Know?' last summer.

In case you missed these events, and you would like to access the sessions, please see below:

Understanding the historical information behind the challenges and the risk factors of the LGBTQIA2S+ BIPOC \(Part 1\)

Enhancing the protective factors for the LGBTQIA2S+ BIPOC \(Part 2\)

Moving the needle: How to improve the current behavioral health system to increase engagement and retention of LGBTQIA2S+ BIPOC? \(Part 3\)

How can we transform this information into actionable and practical steps to enhance service delivery to the LGBTQIA2S+ BIPOC and make a difference? \(Part 4\)

During each session, panelists shared their experiences as subject matter experts and/or lived experiences. The sessions were very well received by the participants.

Our community asked us to provide additional resources around LGBTQIA2S+ BIPOC populations. As a result of this request, our team put together an extensive list of articles, trainings, websites, materials and you can access the information and share it with your family, friends and colleagues.
